

Erasmus Mundus contact seminar in Bangkok, Thailand - April, 2-3, 2012 and in Seoul, Korea - May, 15-16, 2012**

On April 2-3, 2012, and on May 15-16, 2012 a networking seminar on higher education cooperation will take place in Bangkok, Thailand and in Seoul, Korea, respectively. The seminar will provide a networking and matchmaking opportunity and promote joint study programmes between Europe and Asia. The seminar will gather European and Asian (Thai/Vietnamese/Malaysian/Singaporean or Korean/Japanese/Chinese) higher education representatives. Further information on the seminar can be found under:

Funding opportunity for participation - APPLY NOW!**

(<http://www.asem-education-secretariat.org/asemundus>)

European higher education representatives interested in participation can receive financial support to cover travel and subsistence costs.

The EU-funded project "Euro-Asia.net" will financially support selected European higher education representatives to participate in the networking seminar in Bangkok or Seoul with the aim to initiate contacts, search for appropriate Asian (Thai/Vietnamese/Malaysian/Singaporean or Korean/Japanese/Chinese) partners and possibly create a project consortium. A market place, organised at these seminars will allow participants to present project ideas and match with appropriate partners.

European university representatives can apply for co-funding of travel and subsistence costs. The maximum total amount eligible for funding is EUR 2.500 and it is important to note that 20% of the total amount has to be funded by the applicant's own resources.

Applications need to present a convincing project plan on how to profit from participation in the seminar and initiate new European-Asian higher education cooperation projects.

THE SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR PROJECT PROPOSALS UNDER THIS CALL IS:

12 FEBRUARY 2012**
